

Barry Stewart Mann
Peace Pipes & Talking Leaves: Cherokee Leaders and Lore

Across:

- 2 - What black war paint represents
- 3 - What red war paint represents
- 5 - The Cherokee's sacred number
- 6 - The Cherokee name for pages in a book
- 9 - The English name of Nanye Hi
- 11 - What Cherokee can't eat because it makes their bones brittle

Down:

- 1 - The name of the man who created the written Cherokee language
- 3 - The Cherokee clan that are the healing arts (Ani Sahoni)
- 4 - Another name for the Tsalagi People
- 6 - Wa Do in Cherokee means
- 7 - The Cherokee clan that are peaceful and respecting of every woman and man (Ani Gilogi)
- 8 - The game Cherokee plan to train as warriors
- 10 - The Cherokee clan that are the fierceness of war (Ani Waya)
- 12 - What the Cherokee made masks out of

Possible Answers:

Blood, Blue, Cherokee, Death, Frog, Gourds, Long Hairs, Nancy Ward, Sequoia, Seven, Stick Ball, Talking Leaves, Thank You, Wolf